10 COUNT ONE: VIOLATION OF CA LABOR CODE SECTION §510

11 FAILURE TO PROPERLY PAY OVERTIME WAGES

12 11. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates paragraphs 1-10 as if fully stated herein.

13 12. California Labor Code Section 501, applicable at all times relevant herein to Plaintiff's
14 employment by Defendants, provides that all employees are entitled to payment at the 15 rate of time and one half for hours in excess of 8 in one day, or 40 hours in one week, and 16 double time for hours in excess of 12 in one day.

17 13. During the course of employment with Defendants, Plaintiff regularly worked in excess
18 of 8 hours a day and 40 hours per week, however Defendant's knowingly and willingly
19 failed to pay Plaintiff overtime wages as required by law.

20 14. California Labor Code Section 1194 provides that it is unlawful for employers not to 21 make the required overtime payments identified in the preceding paragraph and that
22 employees not paid such payments can recover any monies owed by civil action.

23 15. Defendants therefore owe Plaintiff overtime wages not properly paid to Plaintiff in an 24 amount to be determined at trial.
25

1 16. Defendants have failed and refused and continue to fail and refuse to pay Plaintiff the
2 amount owed.

3 17. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff the required sum violates the provisions of Labor
4 Code Sections 510 and 1194 and is therefore unlawful.

5 18. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 1194(a), Plaintiff requests that the court award Plaintiff
6 reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred by him in this action.

7 COUNT TWO: VIOLATION OF THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT

8 FAILURE TO PROPERLY PAY OVERTIME WAGES

9 19. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates paragraphs 1-19 as if fully stated herein.

10 20. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff's employment was subject to the provisions of the 11 Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended ("FLSA"), 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq. and 12 Plaintiff was an individual employee covered by virtue of Plaintiff's direct engagement in 13 interstate commerce.

14 21. The FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207 requires all employees to be paid overtime for work
15 performed in excess of forty hours per week, unless specifically exempted by the law.

16 22. Although Plaintiff was not so exempt during employment with MIS AMIGOS MEAT
17 MARKET, defendants knowingly caused and permitted Plaintiff to regularly work in
18 excess of forty hours per week without paying Plaintiff one and one half of Plaintiff's
19 regular rate of pay.

20 23. By not paying overtime wages in compliance with the FLSA, defendants violated
21 Plaintiff's rights under the FLSA.

22 24. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' failure to pay proper wages under the 23 FLSA, Plaintiff incurred general damages in the form of lost overtime wages.

24 25. Defendants intentionally, with reckless disregard for their responsibilities under the 25 FLSA, and without good cause, failed to pay Plaintiff proper wages, and thus defendants

1 are liable to Plaintiff for liquidated damages in an amount equal to lost overtime wages,
2 pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) of the FLSA.

3 26. Defendants therefore owe Plaintiff overtime not properly paid to Plaintiff, in an amount
4 to be determined at trial.

5 27. Plaintiff was required to retain legal assistance in order to bring this action and, as such,
6 is entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) of the 7 FLSA.

8 COUNT THREE: VIOLATION OF CA LABOR CODE SECTION 201

9 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES DUE AND "WAITING TIME" PENALTIES

10 28. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the allegations of paragraphs 1-28 as if fully stated
11 herein.

12 29. At the time Plaintiff's employment with MIS AMIGOS MEAT MARKET was 13 terminated, defendant's owed Plaintiff certain unpaid overtime wages in amounts 14 previously alleged.

15 30. Failure to pay wages owed at an employee's termination as required by Labor Code §201
16 subjects the employer the payment of a penalty equaling up to 30 days wages, as 17 provided for in Labor Code § 203.

18 31. As of this date, Defendants have failed and refused, and continue to fail and refuse, to 19 pay the amount due, thus making defendants liable to Plaintiff for penalties equal to thirty
20 (30) days wages, in an amount to be determined at trial.

21 32. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 218.5, Plaintiff requests that the court award Plaintiff
22 reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in this action.

23 33. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 218.6, Plaintiff requests that the court award interest on 24 all due and unpaid wages, at the legal rate specified by Civil Code Section 3289(b), 25 accruing from the date the wages were due and payable.

COUNT FOUR: VIOLATION OF CA BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE
SECTION 17200 UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES

34. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the allegations of paragraphs 1-34 as if fully stated herein.

35. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff's employment with MIS AMIGOS MEAT MARKET was subject to the California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders promulgated by the California Industrial Welfare Commission, which required all employees to be paid overtime for work performed in excess of forty hours per week or eight hours per day, unless specifically exempted by law.

36. At all times relevant herein, as the employer of Plaintiff, defendants were subject to the California Unfair Trade Practices Act (California Business and Professions Code § 17000 et seq.), but failed to pay the Plaintiff overtime pay as required by applicable California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

37. During the period Plaintiff was employed with MIS AMIGOS MEAT MARKET, defendants failed to pay Plaintiff legally required overtime pay to which he was legally entitled, with defendants keeping to themselves the amount which should have been paid to Plaintiff.

38. In doing so, defendants violated California Unfair Trade Practices Act, Business and Professions Code §17200, et seq. by committing acts prohibited by applicable California Labor Code provisions, California Wage Orders, and the FLSA, thus giving them a competitive advantage over other employers and businesses with whom defendants were in competition and who were in compliance with the law.

39. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' violations and failure to pay the required overtime pay, the Plaintiff's rights under the law were violated and the Plaintiff incurred general damages in the form of unpaid wages in an amount to be determined at trial.

1 40. Defendants had been aware of the existence and requirements of the Unfair Trade
2 Practices Act and the requirements of State and Federal wage and hour laws, but
3 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to pay Plaintiff overtime pay due.

4 41. Plaintiff, having been illegally deprived of the overtime pay to which he was legally
5 entitled, herein seeks restitution of such wages pursuant to the Business and Professions
6 Code §17203 in an amount to be determined at trial.

7 COUNT FIVE: VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE SECTION 226

8 INADEQUATE PAY STATEMENTS

9 42. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the allegations of paragraphs 1-42 as if fully stated
10 herein.

11 43. California Labor Code Section 226 provides that all employers shall provide to 12 employees accurate and complete wage statements including, but not to limited to, an
13 accurate and current statement of all rates paid for all regular and overtime hours worked
14 during the pay-period, a complete and itemized statement of deductions, net wages
15 earned, the dates fir which payment is being made, any and all applicable piece rates, and 16 the current address ad name of the employer.

17 44. California Labor Code Section 226 further provides that any employee suffering injury
18 due to a willful violation of the aforementioned obligations may collect the greater of 19 either actual damages or 50$ for the first inadequate pay statement and 100$ for each
20 inadequate statement thereafter.

21 45. During the course of Plaintiff's employment, defendants consistently failed to provide
22 plaintiff with adequate pay statements as required by California Labor Code §226.

23 46. Defendants failed to provide such adequate statements willingly and with full knowledge
24 of their obligations under Section 226.

25 47. Defendants' failure to provide such adequate statements has caused injury to the plaintiff.

1 48. Plaintiff is therefore legally entitled to recover actual damages caused by defendants'
2 failure to provide proper records, in an amount to be determined at trial.

3 49. Plaintiff has incurred costs and fees in bringing this action and seeks to recover such
4 costs under California Labor Code §226.

5 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

6 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

7 50. For compensatory damages per CA Labor Code §1194 for unpaid overtime wages in an
8 amount to be determined;

9 51. For liquidated damages per the FLSA equal to unpaid overtime wages in an amount to be
10 determined at trial;

11 52. For restitution of unpaid overtime pay pursuant to California Business and Professions
12 Code §17203 in an amount to be determined at trial;

13 53. For waiting time penalty damages of thirty days wages to Plaintiff, pursuant to California
14 Labor Code § 203 in an amount to be determined at trial;

15 54. Damages and penalties for inadequate pay statements pursuant to California Labor Code
16 Section 226 in an amount to be determined at trial;

17 55. For pre-judgment interest of 10% on the unpaid overtime compensation and unpaid
18 salaries pursuant to California Labor Code §1194(a);

19 56. Plaintiff asks the court to award reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to California Labor
20 Code §1194(a) and 29 U.S.C. §216(b) of the FLSA;
